
ARTICLE XXI: SAVINGS AND SEPARABILITY CLAUSE

1. The parties agree that any clauses which may be prohibited by, invalidated under, or in contravention of an operable Federal or State law, or under which the Employer or Union is required to do any act which is in contravention of any Federal or State Law, shall be null and void. But in such event, the remaining clauses shall continue in full force and effect for the term of the agreement, and any renewal thereof.
 - a. The parties agree, in good faith, to attempt to replace any such null and void clauses with a clause which conforms with the law.
